

The sycophancy direction is present in every arm — suppression doesn't erase it

Projection of the last-token residual onto the sycophancy direction, by depth. All seven arms track nearly the same curve, including the non-sycophantic ones (4, 6). The difference is functional, not whether the feature is encoded.

